

I do not want to hear about other peoples problems, sex lives or inappropriate language during any flight I am on. This is an envasion of my rights. This is going too far. I can also see the headlines when the first person is arrested for hitting another passenger due to a phone conversation. Talk about air rage.